Once upon a time in a place called Harlem, jazz was about thrivin' from a riff. Toes were tappin, fingers snappin', hips shakin' and the rent party was going all night long.. You had your crooners and your shouters.
Your sharp suits and soft shoe.
But...

the piano player was king.
And all the bands were swingin', and the joints were jumpin' to the music of Basie, Ellington, Nat Cole, Errol Garner,
Louis Jordan, and Ray
Charles...
